

get the dust on their shoes.

Martin Fredrikson came back from Hastings Wednesday to celebrate the glorious Fourth in Binford. Martin was always a good fellow and he felt well paid for making the trip. He informs us that he expects soon to leave his present location to take an elevator at Pekin.