

them on Friday.

The Binford Telephone Exchange is soon to have a new office, the same being now under way of construction on the east side of Whinnery Street, north of the Schindele property. This will be a neat little building, and will improve still more the appearance of the street at that point. Charley Goffe is digging the cellar and will fill it with his garden truck this fall.

Prof. O. O. Brodshaug and Edi