

We are pleased to note at this time that little Sissie Gunderson, who has been dangerously ill at times during the past several weeks, is now very much improved and she is able to be taken out of doors in the warm spring air.