

M. A. Hagle arrived home Wednesday from his claim near Steele. He drove through by team, and reports the crops looking fine and dandy. The boys are still at the claim. Mr. Hagle will remain for some time attending to his interests in this vicinity.

The interest in the claim is still high.