

Messrs Ward and Probstfield have purchased the West Hotel of H. M. Hanson, and will convert the same into a lodging house. A fair portion of the building will be used for living rooms and the office part is to be utilized for a land office.

A new and sensible stock of