

Helmer Hanson escaped our notice a few days ago and departed for Gary, Minnesota, to attend school during the winter. Altho he evaded us at the time, the truth must prevail in this as well as other cases, and we learned of it in time for this issue. He wants the Times sent to him and he couldn't get it without letting us know the particulars.