

test it was given upon its arrival.

The band has added a nice new instrument to its line of excellent paraphernalia, and it is a dandy. It is a four-valve euphonium and was ordered for baritone work. It is of the famous Conn make and is a nice sounding instrument. Prof. Chas. Hart, the gauzy-winged gentleman from Jessie will now be expected to go some as he is the fortunate young man for whom this valuable instrument was purchased.