

Truscott was in attendance.

C. R. Holloway brought his six-year-old son to Dr. Truscott last Wednesday, for the purpose of having his collar-bone set, the little fellow having sustained the injury while playing at school. - At last accounts the little boy was doing nicely.

Dr. Gale's dentistry speaks for it.