

run.

J. E. Johnson of the Crane-Johnson Co., has greatly recovered from his accident of a few weeks ago and is able to get around quite freely. It will be remembered that he fell from a platform and broke his shoulder some time ago, besides being rendered unconscious at the time. He was a Binford visitor Monday and we were all glad to see him once more, and note the improvement he is making after such a severe misfortune.

Frank Hicks departed Saturday