

Hans H. Koloen was in town last week circulating his petition for supporters for his nomination to the office of sheriff. Hans is a big husky looking chap and he received pretty good recognition here as well as at other places where he has been.