

him, he will see that you look up.

T. B. Moore is erecting a large barn at the corner of Harlan Street and Shipley Ave., East. Perhaps you will find it hard to locate the building from this description, but you can find it on the lots south from and opposite George Pratt's property.

Who has been a