

A letter from our good townsman, Ben E. Nelson, states that he is improving, gradually, and it is hoped he will soon recover from his attack of pleurisy, and be able to return home. Ben's "Black Cat" ball team is figuring on another game with the "Bill Dugans" in the near future, and if Ben is away, what can the poor boys do?