

Andrew H. Overby returned from Valley City last Saturday, after having spent several weeks in the hospital. He went there to have his injured hand treated, and while there was taken sick which caused him to remain longer than would otherwise have been necessary. It was not necessary to remove more of the flesh, and we are glad to know that he has a good portion of his hand spared.

Mr. Darden received a message