

William Rickford has been sojourning in Binford during the past few weeks, and the boys are all having a good time with him. Bill is often prevailed upon to entertain the crowd with his piano selections, and there are few who can do it better.