

We are glad to announce this week that Mrs. Stephen Roryig is rapidly recovering from her recent illness. She sat up a part of last Sunday, and seems to be gaining strength, which is good news to her many friends who have been deeply concerned over her condition.

A report reaches us to the effect