

Louis Smith has about completed the erection of a comfortable little cottage in the north part of town, and expects to move into same in the near future.