

E. H. Stevens, of Hope, formerly a publisher of the Hope Pioneer, but who was fortunate enough to escape from the craft a few years ago, arrived in town last Friday, and is now working with his brother, George Stevens. Earl arrived here in time to get into the ball game last Sunday and get skinned with the rest of the married men.