

Albert Stromme was kicked in the forehead by a horse last Monday, and was brought to town as soon as possible after regaining consciousness and Dr. Truscott attended to his injuries. He was at the Maurer hotel. It is said that he is improving gradually.