

T. O. Torgerson informed the TIMES the first of the week that there is considerable anxiety in his neighborhood concerning the safety of John Thorson who went to Canada a few weeks ago and expected to return in time for haying and harvest. Letters were received from him regularly until up to about ten days ago it was found that he could not be located. Efforts will be made to ascertain his whereabouts for his family and friends are deeply concerned.