

Even the doctors get laid up once in a while. Dr. Truscott has been confined to his chamber a couple of days this week, but is able to get around a little once more. He has a bad eye as a result of having contracted a cold in it, and he departs today for Minneapolis to consult a specialist with a view to relieving the disabled member.

---