

R. B. and Barney Vogen, and families, of Binford, N. D., are visiting relatives and friends in this city and on North Prairie. Both are former residents of North Prairie, moving to Dakota 8 or 10 years ago. The former is buying grain in that town, and Barney owns a dray line. Both were surprised at the many improvements noticeable in our city, and were glad to get back for a visit, but they prefer North Dakota for they claim there is no place like it when it comes to hustling and business.—Rushford Star Republican.