

A deputy-marshal was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ludvig Amundson on Sunday, January 6th. The first thing he did was to inquire into the matter of local police affairs, and after phoning to the station and learning that his services were not needed, he took a quiet and restful sleep.

---