

De La Bere's Wife is Dead

Mrs. De La Bere, wife of Michael B. De La Bera, editor of the Sheldon Progress, died Sunday, Jan. 26, at Colorado Springs, after a long illness with consumption. Mrs. De La Bere was 26 years of age and was married two and a half years ago. She leaves her husband a small child. The remains will be taken to Lisbon, her former home, for interment. The sincere sympathy of the newspaper men of the state will be extended to the prominent newspaper man in his present bereavement.
