

Mrs. A. D. Shaw received the sad intelligence by wire last Friday of the sudden death of her sister, Miss Amy Rensby, at Elbow, Sask., Canada. Death was due to diabetes. Miss Rensby was quite well known here, having visited here on different occasions. She was a favorite among the young people. Mrs. Shaw and the baby left for that place Saturday, to be present at the funeral, which was held today. It is said that misfortunes never comes singly. Yesterday Mr. Shaw received a message from his wife, stating that her father was not expected to live. The old gentleman is also a sufferer of diabetes.
