

Rev. W. W. Hart, pastor of the Congregational church at Cooperstown was here today, returning from McHenry, where he had been conducting the funeral services over the remains of the 11-year-old boy of William Thurlow, who was accidentally shot last Sunday. While in Binford arrangements were made with Mr. Hart to come here and hold services occasionally. He will be here Sunday, the 25th, and preach at 8 o'clock in the evening in the opera house.
