

John Knapp and bride returned yesterday from Norway. They were married in Trondjhem, Norway, on the 11th of July, and sailed for this country on Friday following. The happy bride was Miss Agnes Pritz, a sister of Otto Pritz, and is well known here having spent considerable time here up until a year ago. During her stay in Binford she won the esteem of a large circle of acquaintances. Mr. Knapp is a member of the firm of Buchheit, Bakken & Co. and in business and social circles is one of the foremost young men. For the present they are staying at the Pritz home and receiving the congratulations of their many friends.
