

LUCHT-HAGLE.

Prominent Young Couple Joined in Wedlock Wednesday.

Wednesday forenoon, at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hagle, occurred the marriage of their eldest daughter, Emma J., to Mr. Herman P. Lucht, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucht, Rev. N. G. Mecklem, of Coopers-town, officiating. Only relatives and immediate friends were present at the ceremonies.

The couple were attended by Miss Annie Hagland and Mrs. Geo. Schmidt, cousins of the bride, and Louis O. Hagle and Otto Lucht.

The bride is a most estimable young lady. She has grown to womanhood in this community and has cultivated a large circle of friends by her winning ways and sunny disposition.

The groom is a young and prosperous farmer. He has the happy faculty of transforming acquaintances into fast friends. He is built of sterling quality and is bound to make a success of his endeavors.

They were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents.

They left yesterday for a brief visit with relatives at McHenry. Concluding their visit there they will go on a ten days' honeymoon trip. Returning they will make their home on the farm owned by the groom, eight miles south of town.

The Times joins in extending best wishes for a long and happy married life.
