

Hettinger County Herald:—

Julius Will and Miss Alvina Nelson were married at the Methodist parsonage in Dickinson Wednesday, April 27, Rev. F. L. Watkins performing the ceremony. Some intimate friends of the contracting parties are of the opinion that the act was premeditated but it came as a surprise to the big majority. However, all hands are joined in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Will a little of the best of everything. Both bride and groom are popular in New England where they have lived for several years. Mrs. Will is a daughter of Constable N. E. Nelson and for some time had been employed at Asa Gardner's home where her valuable services were thoroughly appreciated. Mr. Will is to be congratulated upon his selection of a helpmate. Mr. Will is an industrious farmer and a man of fine character. He has a good homestead and a quarter section of railroad land northeast of town. Here is where the young couple will make their home.
