

The partnership existing in the harness business under the firm name of J. V. Seidlinger & Co. was dissolved this week. Mr. Seidlinger buying the interest of his partner, Geo. Stocklin. Mr. Stocklin will engage in the carpentry business for the coming summer.

Morris Greenland and wife arrived here last Friday from Esmond and Mr. Greenland commenced his new duties at the Trimble-Winton lumber yards on Monday. They will receive a warm welcome by Binford residents. They are staying at the Theo. Kittelson home for the present.

In a letter from Carl J. Krogfoss, who resigned his position in the bank at Claremont, S. D., and went to Tolley, this state, his name appears on the letter head as cashier of the Tolley State bank. Carl's many friends in Binford are pleased to learn of his rapid rise in the banking world and hope to see him continue up the ladder of success.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the base ball association held at Cooperstown last Friday, F. G. Lewis of Binford was elected president, Prof. Mason, secretary and A. M. Baldwin, treasurer. The secretary was instructed to communicate with parties at Dazey to ascertain whether or not they want to join the league and also to correspond with some other league organization in regards to getting some information to assist them in drawing up the by-laws. The schedule will be fixed at a later meeting.

PIONEER

Choice

PO
OY

All orders receive

F. G. LEWIS