

The League Season Opens This Week

Although THE TIMES stated two weeks ago that the branch league had gone bump, sentiment seems to have changed and the board of directors appointed at the last meeting met at Cooperstown Tuesday and perfected the playing schedule for the first six games. Six towns are represented in the league—Dazey, Hannaford, Cooperstown, Jessie, McHenry and Binford.

The season opens tomorrow with McHenry at Binford, Hannaford at Jessie, Dazey at Cooperstown. Next Tuesday Binford will be at Dazey, Jessie at McHenry, and Cooperstown at Hannaford.
