

The basket social and dance for the benefit of the band at the opera house Tuesday evening was greatly enjoyed by those who attended. The opening numbers of the program were a few choice selection by the band. after which the orchestra took it- respective place and dancing began in earnest and continued until 11 o'clock, when the sale of baskets took place, selling all the way from $2.50 to $6.50. The boys realized the sum of $85.50, but after paying all expenses they did not have quite $50.00 left.
