

The Binford Cornet Band held a meeting Monday night after a long spell of inactivity in a musical way, and it being the annual meeting, the officers were elected for the ensuing year. Dr. Truscott had been chairman, Albert Anson, secretary, John Knapp, treasurer, and Geo. Lockett, business manager, during the past year, and they made such a good record, that they were re-elected by a large majority, in the face of their own violent opposition.

---