

Again the batchelors have proven their superiority over their more fortunate—or unfortunate—friends. This was demonstrated last Saturday evening at Nelson's bowling alleys when the singles put it over the doubles in the three games by 54 pins. Just why the married gentlemen don't take a brace or else get wise and lay down—rather than be beaten continuously—is beyond the comprehension of their backers.