

The annual stockholders' and directors' meeting of the First National bank was held Tuesday. The same officers and directors were re-elected. The business of institution during the past year was very satisfactory, being greatly in excess of that of the previous year, in the amount of deposits, profits and general business.