

The TIMES has installed its new press this week. It is a Vaughn Acme and is a great improvement over the old Armstrong. Every line will print clearly and it can be made to produce the finest half tone work. It has a speed capacity of 1000 per hour.