

It is reported that the Gull River Lumber Co., have sold their line of yards to the Trimble-Winton & Co., and the transfer will be made some time next month. The local management will be the same as before.