

who has been very sick.

The pool room in the Ford building has been opened to the public and is already enjoying a fair share of the patronage. J. D. Reid has rented the place and proposes to conduct it in a very satisfactory manner.

---