

A question of vital importance to the village was discussed at the Commercial club meeting last evening. The roads leading to town in several places are said to be in a deplorable condition, and it was for their betterment that a committee was appointed to look after the matter. Good roads are an important factor for the welfare of any community and the townspeople and farmers should show a spirit of co-operation in their endeavor to get them.

When you find a paper that