

The bell for the Free Lutheran church was put in place last week and was in service last Sunday for the first time. That congregation has something to be proud of, inasmuch as the bell was a present from Mrs. O. K. Thune.