

A Great Success

The Supper and Sale given by the Ladies Aid was the most Brilliant Event of the Season.

The supper and auction sale given by the Ladies Aid at the Opera House last Thursday evening was a decided success, and the ladies who have been working hard to get things ready for the sale and the supper found it no easy task. Before the auction began Rev. J. M. Jenson called the audience to order and in a few fitting remarks explained to everybody's satisfaction that there would be no bargains or snips. When Lewis was seen with an apron in his hand ready to commence the sale we knew it was but too true what the Reverend had said, and it was a great satisfaction to the ladies of the society to learn that their supper netted 58.65., Proceeds of the sale $144.10. a total of $202.75.
