

A lodge of Yeomen was instituted at this place last Friday night, and the society started off with 28 members, comprising a number of our leading business men in addition to others from the surrounding country.