

The postoffice will be moved into the Schindele building by Monday, the 13th inst., and from then on the postmaster will have better facilities for handling the business. Postmaster Gundersen trusts that the patrons will kindly overlook any inconveniences that may exist until he gets settled and in shape to handle the business to the satisfaction of all.

Andrew N. ...