

Prairie fires were numerous in this vicinity last week, and considerable damage was done. One fire started south of town and burned eastward thru the hills. This was extinguished by a lot of hard work with wet sacks and the plowing of fire breaks, but not until it had burned a couple of hay stacks. A fire destroyed a big barn west of town.