

An effort is being made to organize a Rebecca lodge in Binford, as an auxiliary to the I. O. O. F. The Odd Fellows have a strong following here and the ladies don't propose to let the gentlemen get the best of them. Perhaps if the ladies learn the inside workings of a lodge they won't object so strenuously when the husband has to "go to lodge meeting"—and perhaps they will.

Word has been received from Miss