

A petition has been circulated among the citizens this week and has been sent to the railroad company and the D. S. B. Johnston Land company asking that the street west of main street be opened. The Great Western elevator which was burned last week stood on the street but it is thought the railroad company will grant them a sight a little west of their old location.