

The storm of Saturday and Sunday filled the cuts west of town, so that it was necessary to send the snow plow up ahead of the passenger on Monday. About 18 feet of snow for a distance of 300 feet had drifted in the Overby cut. Three rails were torn loose before it was opened up.