

The new train schedule that went into effect last week doesn't make much difference with Binford citizens except that it butts in on their after-dinner smoke. The hotel and restaurant men will appreciate the change, as it brings the train here nearer their regular dinner hours.