

Simons' many beautiful homes.

A work train is here with a bunch of workers and are engaged in raising the track and otherwise improving the line. It is thought that this work is done to give the company a better roadbed preparatory to extending this branch from McHenry to Oberon.

O. S. Gunderson came down