

WORKS at St. Paul.

At the meeting of the school board Tuesday evening it was decided that the seating capacity of the school house must be enlarged in order to accommodate the new pupils that are entering every week. This is one of the many things that speak well of our city.