

Elsewhere in today's issue will be found the notice of school election. Two members of the board are to be elected. The two retiring members, Joseph Buchheit and Andrew Dahlin, are broad-minded men, and capable in school affairs. The voters would make no mistake in insisting on their re-election.

George Coff was up from